

News Release

The Reger Group Welcomes Congressman Wittman to its Stafford Headquarters

March 9, 2009 – Congressman Rob Wittman (R-VA) recently visited The Reger Group (REGER), meeting with employees and discussing issues he is working in Washington, DC. The Congressman stressed the importance of the work The Reger Group is doing for our military overseas and highlighted the importance small businesses like REGER play in the global war on terror.

“The Reger Group is a prime example of how important small business is to the economic well being of our region, and why we in Congress must work to protect small businesses from government regulation and higher taxes,” said Congressman Wittman. Wittman also congratulated Tom Reger on the company’s growth.

The Reger Group has been recognized as one of the fastest growing companies in the Washington, DC region by Washington SmartCEO magazine. The company won this award based on employee and revenue growth over a three-year period and was recently recognized for their achievements. The Reger Group employs over 130 dedicated industry professionals representing all branches of the military as well as government and commercial services including expertise in management, business process engineering, operational support, OIF/OEF Operations and Joint and Army experimentation.

About The Reger Group

Established in 2004, The Reger Group (REGER) is a family owned, diversified business dedicated to serving the needs of U.S. Government agencies. REGER’s focus is rapid support to emerging homeland defense and homeland security requirements resulting from the Global War on Terror. The company’s services include rapid acquisition management, Modeling & Simulation, technology assessment and integration, and innovative business solutions. The company is headquartered in Stafford, Virginia.

For more information about this award, please contact:
Chris Connelly
connelly30@msn.com